

VISION

"To be the consulting engineering, environmental and project management firm of choice in Eastern and Southern Africa region"

MISSION

"To help clients secure their investment by providing competitive, high quality, innovative and appropriate engineering and environmental management solutions, in a professional and reliable manner"

WHO WE ARE

Norken (I) Ltd is an independent, locally registered company that was formed from the former Norconsult AS Kenya - a branch office of Norconsult AS Norway.

We have a sizeable human resource comprising experienced professional, technical, and administrative staff. We also maintain a fully equipped material testing laboratory and equipment for environmental investigations including: soil and groundwater surveys, geophysical surveys, geotechnical pre-investigations and mapping of contaminated ground/ground water using resistivity and electrical imaging, soil gas surveys, etc.
